

Feedback and Complaints Summary

1. Purpose

This procedure provides guidance to persons who wish to provide feedback, raise an issue or concern, or make a complaint about us, regarding our services.

This procedure is intended to ensure that we handle complaints fairly, efficiently and effectively to a satisfactory resolution within a reasonable timeframe and that appropriate actions are taken to improve our services where required.

This procedure should be read in conjunction with our Feedback and Complaints Management Policy, which provides information about the key principles and concepts underpinning our Complaints Management System.

2. Who can make a complaint

Any of Early Autism Services' clients as well as their families, carers, representatives and advocates, as well as statutory bodies, government agencies, stakeholders, Workers or any other person, may make a complaint to or about Early Autism Services about its supports, services, practitioners, employees, contractors, volunteers and other Workers.

A complaint may be made on an anonymous basis. You can make an anonymous complaint:

- a. by calling the number in section 4.1(d) below and stating that you wish to make an anonymous complaint (so we don't ask you to identify yourself); or
- b. in writing by filling out a Feedback and Complaints Form but not including your name or other details that may identify you and posting it to the address specified in section 4.1(c) below.

3. Rights to access advocates

You may seek support from family, a friend or an independent advocate in making a complaint. If you require an advocate or representative, please let us know and Early Autism Services would be pleased to cooperate with, and facilitate arrangements for, advocates (including independent advocates) and other representatives.

4. How to make a complaint to Early Autism Services

If you feel comfortable, you are encouraged to raise your concern or complaint with us first, as this is often the best way to have your issue resolved quickly.
